

Project: Honda, Enfield

Client: Honda (UK) Ltd

Project Value: £1.2M

Services Consultant: Integr8 Ltd

Services Value: £225K

Contract Duration: 19 weeks

Sub Contract Type: Design & Build

Size: 25,000 Sq ft

Integr8 successfully tendered and were awarded on a full design and build basis; the mechanical & electrical services installation works for a new build, two storey Alan Day Honda car dealership in Enfield. The fast track, project which also included the construction of a 7 car ramp workshop with full MOT facility and remote wet & dry valet building involved the close liaison with both the client; Honda (UK) Ltd; and the end user; Alan Day Honda; to ensure both corporate identity and the end users requirements were catered for. Integr8 carried out the following M&E services works...

new lighting (corporate, non-corporate ,emergency escape & exit); a site wide external lighting system; containment & wire-ways for the clients own data specialist; general & specialist power, inclusive of all final connections to plant/equipment; a new addressable fire alarm system; a 4 channel public address & background music system; a state of the art 2 pipe VRV air conditioning system throughout the entire building; a comprehensive supply & extract ventilation system complete with a heat recovery recuperator for the showroom & office areas, and new water services & sanitaryware to the WC's etc.